Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Feb. 3.—The reception announced in the Daily News last week to be given by Mrs. Geo. L. Farrell and mother, Mrs. McGregor took place at their pretty winter cottage on Halifax avenue last Friday afternoon from 4 to 5 p. m. The new house was thrown open to Mr. and Mrs. Farrell's friends for the first time, and everybody was interested in the completion of a home whose building had been watched with so much interest. Some sixty invitations were issued, and in spite of the heavy thunder storm which was in progress at the time, more than fifty guests assembled, and the heavy gloom without only accentuated by contrast, the beauty and brightness and charm within.

The decorations, American beauty roses, magnolia leaves and handsome foliage plants, so blended in harmony with the draperies and furnishings of parlor and dining room as to make a perfect effect.

A course of dainty refreshments were served in the dining room with the tea and coffee.

Mesdames Farrell and McGregor, hostesses, were assisted by Mesdames Plumb, Wells, Cordis, Rogers, Gamble, Bianchi, Unbehler, and the hour was most delightful to all present.

The husbands of those assisting the hostess were invited to an evening at bridge and five hundred, following the afternoon reception. An eleven o'clock supper was served.

A social sing was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Pearson on Halifax avenue on Tuesday evening. The attendance was good and the evening was pleasantly spent. A soprano solo by Miss Meda Pearson and a mandolin selection by Miss Winifred added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Mrs. Firman, the president of the Missionary Union of the Congregational church, has called a day of prayer for Feb. 24, and the women of Florida are expected to observe that day with the women of other states.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Wortley, of Chicago, last week joined Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wortley on Grandview avenue.

Mrs. Melton George, of the Glenwood fame, who donated a 35 acre tract of land near Chicago to establish a school for delinquent boys, is expected to arrive in Seabreeze Friday.

day, and will spend some time on Valley street. Mrs. George is a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duncan.

Mrs. M. O. Robertson, arrived from the north last Thursday and joined her sister, Mrs. McBride, on Grandview avenue.

F. McLaughlin and Dr. Walker of the Sonntag Investment Company, arrived last night from Evansville, Ind., and are guests at the Seaside Inn.

Mrs. S. E. Emory, who has been at the Burgman home for two weeks past left Wednesday afternoon for St. Augustine, where she will spend the rest of the season.

Mrs. Butler E. Dickey and child and friend, Mrs. John Tuttle and two children and nurse, arrived from Chicago this week and are pleasantly located on Ocean boulevard.

Mrs. Worthy, of Springfield, Mass., is guest of Mrs. Geo. W. Wells this week.

A. W. McClarty, of Douglasville, Ga., arrived in Seabreeze Saturday, for a few days visit with his former fellow townsman, Jas. S. Abercrombie, and left Monday to continue his trip to Lake County, where he expects to enjoy a season of hunting and fishing.

Mrs. Winfield and sister, Mrs. Sturgis, and brother, Mr. Quimby, and a friend, made up a pleasant party for an auto trip to St. Augustine the first of the week, returning home yesterday afternoon. They made the trip in Mrs. Winfield's car.

Will Fritts is expected to arrive from Chicago Friday afternoon, and join his family at the Bernard cottage on Ocean boulevard. Two servants of his mother's household will come down with him. Mr. Fritts will spend a week with his family in Seabreeze, after which he and his wife will make a tour of the southern part of the state.

A number of progressive property owners on Valley street have removed the warped wire fences from the front of their premises, to the great improvement in looks of this part of the town. Nothing is less ornamental than a dilapidated front fence.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 3.—The Baraca class entertained at the parsonage on Friday evening, Jan. 28th very successfully. The largest crowd of the season was in attendance. The young men and their teacher, Miss Croman, were in costume. The program consisted of songs, readings and sleight of hand performances. The members of the Baraca class are: Roland Barze, Alfred and Jack Strother, Hahn Cameron, Elmer Yelvington, Bernard Schmidt, Clarence Rose and Ernest Johnson, (the latter of whom was absent on account of sickness.) The door receipts were $26, which goes in part to church building fund. Miss Croman, as well as her class of boys, deserve great credit for the enjoyable program presented.

The regular quarterly meeting services will be held in the M. E. church next Sunday. Rev. G. W. Burns, D. D., of Chicago, a member of the Rock River Conference, will occupy the pulpit at the morning service. District Superintendent H. G. Porter, will preach at the evening service. Holy communion service will be held at the close of the sermon.

Ernest Johnson, who has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis, is improving, and is now able to sit up a short time.

Fred Ferrill organized a party yesterday afternoon for a trip on his boat, the Aquona, to Port Orange and return.

Miss Yelvington, who went to Fort Pierce last Thursday on a visit to her brother, Archie Yelvington, returned Sunday morning accompanied by her brother, who spent Sunday and Monday in the city, leaving on the return trip to Fort Pierce Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Cloyes, of Kansas City, Mo., and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Bishop, of Cassopolis, Mich., who have been spending a short time on Ocean avenue, left Tuesday for points further south. Mr. and Mrs. Cloyes are friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. Phillips.

Mrs. Reynolds and daughter, of Alpena, Mich., have taken rooms at the E. A. Branch home on Seabreeze avenue.

The San Souci Club met at the home of Mrs. A. J. Beardsley, on South Valley street, on Wednesday afternoon, in regular session. The meeting, as usual, was informally pleasant. Refreshment were served at the social hour.

Miss Wakefield was the hostess at the last meeting of the Tofigny Club, at her home on Peninsula drive on Monday evening. The young ladies enjoyed a delightful social evening.

Robert Leggett, prominent cattle buyer of Middleburg, Va., arrived this week and is a guest at Pinehurst for the month.

Miss Gertrude Benson and sister, Mrs. Bessie Fargo, of Macon, Ga., are visiting their parents, Mrs. Parker and Miss Benson, at the Owen cottage on Peninsula drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford A. Cherry have returned from their tour of Cuba and are again visiting at the home of Hon. Chas. T. Cherry, on Palmetto avenue.

Mrs. L. Z. Burdick was the hostess at the Ladies Aid meeting of the M. E. church, Thursday evening of last week. After the regular business meeting of the society the social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U., February 8th, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buckland on Valley street, Seabreeze. Mrs. Hart, a visiting member, will lead. Three new members joined at the last meeting of the society, and there are numerous visiting members who are identifying themselves with the work during their stay in the vicinity.

Mrs. Davis, daughter of Mrs. Luke Beazel, is here on a visit with her mother at her winter home on Palmetto avenue.

Mrs. A. W. Stewart, of McKenzie, Tenn., is spending the season with her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Johnson, on Seabreeze avenue.

G. W. Fisher, of DeLand, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Reed at their home on the Halifax.

Prof. C. L. Watkins, of Chicago, who has been at the Wilson cottage some two months, and who has won many friends by his musical gifts, left last week for Boston.

Buffoonery in "Hamlet."

The buffoonery once tolerated in provincial theaters is illustrated in an anecdote set forth in the memoirs of Barry Sullivan. Wright, who was the first gravedigger, prepared himself to take the house by storm by having incensed his person within a dozen or more waistcoats of all sorts of shapes and patterns. When about to commence the operation of digging the grave for the fair Ophelia Wright began to unwind by taking off waistcoat after waistcoat, which caused uproarious laughter among the audience. But as fast as he relieved himself of one waistcoat Paul Bedford, the second gravedigger, incensed himself in the castoff vests, which increased the snarls of laughter, for as Wright was getting thinner Paul grew fatter and fatter. Wright, seeing himself outdone, kept on the remainder of the waistcoats and went on with his part quite crestfallen.

Wanted It to Take.

Mrs. B. believed in infant baptism, but for some reason that rite was not performed for Tommy till he was some four or five years old. While the ceremony was in progress the mother was very much gratified by Tommy's behavior. He seemed duly impressed with the solemnity of the occasion and remained with bowed head for some time after the sprinkling had been done.

"The angel!" exclaimed the mother. "The little dear!" said a good sister as she went up to give him a "God bless you" and a pat on the head. But just as her hand was descending with that benediction a very wrathful and unangelic countenance was turned upon her, a pugnacious little fist delivered a paralyzing blow on her cheeks, and the indignant Tommy exclaimed, "You git away from here!"

Of course he was led out in disgrace and questioned by his horrified mother. "Why, don't you know she would 'a' rubbed all the baptizing water off before it would 'a' had time to soak in?" explained Tommy, who from his point of view was fully justified.—Los Angeles Times.

The First Patent on Matches.

Before 1833, when wooden matches with phosphorus were made in Vienna, people were dependent upon flint and steel to secure a light. The first patent for a phosphorus match in the United States was taken out in 1834 by A. D. Phillips of Springfield, Mass. For many years people refused to use them, but by 1845 the ill smelling and dumpy old tinder boxes were generally discarded and are preserved, like snuff-boxes, as curiosities.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

IN COLLEGE AT EIGHTY. The other day the newspapers were telling of a man in Nevada, Ia., who began the study of law at the age of forty-eight.

Having been sent to the state legislature as a farmer, he rapidly forged to the front and discovered great gifts as a speaker.

He decided to be a lawyer. When he comes out of law school he will be fifty years of age, and his friends are predicting success for him. But that is only the comparative degree of a high undertaking. Here is the superlative:

Mrs. A. D. Winslip of Racine, Wis., aged seventy-eight years, is studying in the regular course at Ohio State university and says she will remain until she is eighty.

Listen to her: "I feel as young as a girl, and why should I not complete my education? In my girlhood we did not have the advantages that girls have now, though I was fairly educated for those days.

"When I am called hence and go to the next world I do not want to be placed in the A B C class."

She is specializing in psychology and literature. Law at fifty, literature at eighty. Why not?

What is human life but a learning to know and to do? He who quits learning and applying knowledge is ready to die.

And what can give a greater pleasure than a study of the world and the people and things of the world?

Besides—The best way to keep oneself young is to keep a young and active mind and heart. When one no longer takes pleasure in the people and things about him he is, in fact, dead already and walks about merely to save funeral expenses.

Men, like trees, begin to die at the top.

"We are learning more and more that the mind has a tremendous influence over the body. If the mind is kept young it will help to keep the body young."

And—We go into the next world just as we leave this one. "As the tree falls, so it lieth."

Do you want to enter the A B C class in heaven?

Why not at least qualify for the high school over there?

Competent. Irate Passenger—I believe you're driving over every stone in the road. Driver—Waal, sir, it takes a purty good driver to hit 'em all.—Boston Herald.

The Real Trouble. "Woman's ignorance of cooking is the bane of married life."

"No; it's woman's ignorance of her ignorance of cooking."—Boston Transcript.

Kindness has converted more sinners than zeal, eloquence or learning.—P. W. Fisher

Judge Henry T. Titus

Candidate for Mayor of City of Daytona

THE PLATFORM HE STANDS FOR

The prosperity and welfare of the entire city.

Justice to all in Municipal Court, regardless of standing, class or color.

Believes in disposing of misdemeanors in the city court, and placing all fines to the city, rather than encourage the cases being turned over to the State and County officials.

Believes that the city should use every means to have the deplorable streets placed in No. 1 condition, and thus maintain Daytona's reputation of the past—that of having the best streets of any city in the State.

Believes the city should build a side-walk from Midway to Waycross, on Second Street, for the benefit of the colored school children.

Believes in the strict enforcement of all sanitary laws.

Pledges himself to use every effort to bring about a change of the City Charter, for the express purpose of raising the millage and lowering the valuation of all city property so as to protect the valuations of city property from the State and County assessment.

Believes in the continued improvement of the City Island for a public park.
